

ROYAL GARDEN

EST. 1992

Elegant, perfect in form and fulfilling the highest quality standards. Traditionally timeless and at the same time setting innovative trends. It is this philosophy that has made Royal Garden synonymous with aesthetic inimitability combined with exquisite comfort, appealing functionality and guaranteed longevity in the field of high-quality garden furniture for decades.

Ensuring the uniqueness of our products is a holistic process. Starting with the initial design and ending with delivery. Our team stylishly combines flair and expertise with inspiration from current influences in collections that blend functionality and modern elements into a harmonious whole.

The careful selection and safe and sustainable processing of all materials is our top priority, so that only quality products with an unmistakable character are created. Choosing Royal Garden means choosing well thought-out design products with lasting first-class quality.

