

Nestled in the heart of Puglia, Forno Meridiano is a proud ambassador of Apulian culinary heritage, specializing in the production of tarallini and other oven-baked snacks. Tarallini, one of the region's most iconic and beloved products, embodies the essence of southern Italian tradition—simple, authentic, and irresistibly flavorful.

Beyond its commitment to quality, Forno Meridiano is deeply dedicated to sustainability. The company embraces eco-conscious practices to reduce its environmental footprint, reflecting a profound respect for the land, its people, and future generations.
